Tower General Contractors Named 2007 Fastest Growing Private Company
By San Fernando Valley Business Journal

*Follows Ranking of 5th Fastest Growing Private Company in 2007
By Los Angeles Business Journal*

LOS ANGELES, Ca. (December 2007) – Tower General Contractors, the largest minority-owned general contractor in Los Angeles County, has been awarded the distinction of Fastest Growing Private Company of 2007 by the San Fernando Valley Business Journal in the $25 Million to $99.9 Million category. Tower General was also ranked the fifth Fastest Growing Private Company in LA County by the Los Angeles Business Journal.

Founded in 1985 by President Nato Flores, revenues have increased 87% from 2005 to 2006. The Company is working on projects totaling more than 200,000 square feet with an aggregate value of $75 million. Mr. Flores anticipates continued growth in 2008 in all sectors, including the Company's strong hold on the Southern California healthcare market.

"We are honored to be awarded Fastest Growing Private Company by both the San Fernando Valley Business Journal and the Los Angeles Business Journal," commented Mr. Flores. "It is particularly rewarding to be recognized by such longstanding, respected members of the media and the California business community. We look forward to continuing our growth and expansion across a broad range of construction projects, serving a variety of clients in the region."
